Special Events

A special event can be any number of different things and prices can be negotiated based on each individual event. In general, I will come to your event (an example is the Race for the Cure, which is a public fundraiser for breast cancer research), stay for the entire event, take as many photos as possible, and charge based on the amount of time spent. You may then review the photos on my website and order prints from there. OR, I can give individuals CD's of the event. Again, prices will vary depending on the event.

**Note: You will get your CD with all of your finished photos within two weeks of our shoot.

Print Prices

All of my photos are retouched so that they look their best. I will send them to a website online to be printed on professional quality paper to ensure the best prints possible for you! Please allow two weeks between your photo session and receiving your CD with photos. Once you give me your print/photobook/etc. order, I will get them printed as quickly as possible. Please allow at least one week to get those in, as well.

Thank you for your business! Photography is my passion, but my kids & family are my number one priority right now. I am a stay at home mom and am working as a photographer on the side, so it may take me a little longer than a "normal" photographer to get your photos finished. However, I work very hard to ensure that you're happy with all of your photos and can guarantee that you'll have more photos to choose from than you would with any other photographer!

Please Note: I am an on location, natural light photographer. I will come to you!
